

Nancy Evelyn, Supervising Producer

Nancy Evelyn joined Wild Brain in August, 2003 as the Producer of Higglytown Heroes.

She brings 25 years of award winning experience in the world of film, television, and commercials to Wild Brain. She has served as an animation and visual effects producer and production manager for major motion pictures starting her feature film career with producers Howard Koch Sr., Dino De Laurentis, Bud Yorkin and William Friedkin in the 1980's.

Nancy served as Head of Production and Executive Producer at two commercial production companies and has produced scores of commercials with advertising icons such as the Pillsbury doughboy, Keebler elves and Speedy Alka Seltzer. She is the winner of two Clio awards for her commercial work.

In 1987 Nancy founded her own production company specializing in visual effects and animation, which she operated for 10 years. She produced visual effects and animation sequences for 11 feature films, several television movies and TV series for many of the major studios in Hollywood.

In 1997 after 10 successful years the company was sold and Nancy made the transition to Consulting producer for major motion picture companies. She served as Consulting Producer for Spelling Entertainment's big ticket television division for 2 years and was the producer of "Gary & Mike" a multiple Emmy award winning series for Fox and UPn. She has also produced for Warner Brothers, Viacom Productions, Imagine Television, Paramount Pictures and Paramount Television.

Nancy is a member of the Director's Guild of America as a unit production manager. She is also a member of the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences, animation peer group, and was elected to membership in The Producer's Guild in 1999 and currently is a member in the Guild's producer category.
