

Top 10 New TV Series

By James Poniewozik
Wednesday, December 12, 2007

Ben Clark / Nick Jr.

#8 Yo Gabba Gabba Nickelodeon

The most delightfully bizarre kids' show since Pee-Wee's Playhouse is a marriage of club music, edgy animation and surreal imagery that will convince you someone slipped something into your Fruity Pebbles. Like a rave party for kids, with art segments by Devo's Mark Mothersbaugh and music from bands like The Shins, it's gorgeous-looking silly fun, for adults too. In the words of one of its highly contagious songs, this is a show with a party in its tummy.

Craig Blankenhorn / AMC
#1
Mad Men
AMC

Danny Turner / Fox
#2
Flight of the Conchords
HBO

Alan Foner / HBO
#3
Tell Me You Love Me
HBO

Steve Flood / Discovery Channel / BBC Images
#4
Planet Earth
Discovery Channel

Scott Dorffeld / ABC
#5
Pushing Daisies
ABC

Marc Lavener / Comedy Central
#6
The Sarah Silverman Program
Comedy Central

FX
#7
The Riches
FX

Ben Clark / Nick Jr.
#8
Yo Gabba Gabba
Nickelodeon

U.S. National Archives and Records Administration / PBS
#9
The War
PBS

Mary Brannon / CBS
#10
Kid Nation
CBS